

BUILDING BENEFITS FOR TODAY'S WORKFORCE

It's no secret that compensation & benefits are one of the key elements of cultivating employee engagement & retention ... & extend much further than traditional "health benefits & an occasional 'work-from-home' day. Today, it is critical to engage your team in ways that speak to them!

While healthcare, 401k, equity/stock, & "remote days" are attractive – those aren't always the things that will engage the hearts & minds of your team members. There are things you can do to distinguish yourself from others & create an environment where your organization is a 'workplace of choice'!!

How can you do this? Here are a few simple (& in many cases, cost-effective) solutions you can implement!

Physical Wellness

- Gym partnerships for employee discounts

Financial Wellness

- Financial Advisor session(s)
- Tuition Reimbursement

Self-Care

- Daycare partnerships for employee discounts
- Pet care partnerships for employee discounts
- Additional mental health coverage

Career Development

- Quarterly budget for networking events, training webinars, etc
- Executive / Individual Leadership Coaching
